There is an additional excess of RM400 in case of accident where your vehicle is driven by a person not named in your policy, below the age of 21 or still under probational licence (P) (for Comprehensive Private Car). However, if you have selected the All Drivers (Waiver of Compulsory Excess for Unnamed Driver) as an add-on benefit to your policy, we will waive the mandatory excess if at the time of the accident, the person driving the car is an unnamed driver.

- You must ensure that your vehicle is insured at the market value of your vehicle at the point you apply for this policy.
- In the case of renewal, your renewal sum insured will be determine based the present market value from the approved vehicle valuation database which will be shown on the renewal notice issued. However, if the model of your vehicle cannot be found in the approved vehicle valuation database, we will use your previous year's sum insured as a basis and you need to verify the reasonable current market value of your vehicle on renewal. You have to maintain your vehicle in a roadworthy condition.
- In the event of a claim, your claim will be assessed based on the same vehicle valuation database used to determine the market value of your vehicle at the point you apply for this policy or at the point of renewal. This will not apply if your vehicle is insured based on agreed value.

7. What will happen if I under-insure my vehicle?

- If you insure your vehicle lower than the market value by more than 10%, you are considered under-insuring your vehicle. In the event of loss, you will need to bear the proportion of the under-insured amount of the loss yourself. See the following illustration for further information:

Policy Sum Insured	= RM50,000
Vehicle Market Value	= RM80,000

$$\text{Sum Insured/Market Value} \times \text{Assessed Loss: } RM50,000/RM80,000 \times RM5,000 = \underline{RM3,125}$$

In the event of loss, we will pay RM3,125, whereas you will have to bear the remaining RM1,875.

8. What will happen if I over-insure my vehicle?

- If you over-insure your vehicle and in the event of a loss, the claim amount will be subject to the market value of your vehicle at time of loss.
